REVIEW OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

OLD AGE ASSISTANCE. During the month of June, 147 applications were approved for Old Age Assistance and 44 were denied or otherwise disposed of. Assistance amounting to $431,526 was granted to 10,858 recipients at an average payment of $39.74; individual grants ranged from $6.00 to the maximum of $45.00. Both the number of recipients and expenditures were slightly lower than for the previous month. The average grant, however, was eight cents (0.2%) higher than that for May. 195 Old Age Assistance cases were closed during June with more than half of them closed because of the death of the recipient (see Table III, page 6).

AID TO DEPENDENT CHILDREN. Eighty-six families were added to the Aid to Dependent Children program during June and 82 such cases were closed during the month. Employment of a parent, dependent child, or other person in the home accounted for the closing of 37 of the cases. 5,081 dependent children, in 1,943 families, received grants totalling $138,161. Average payments per family and per child were $71.11 and $27.19 respectively.

AID TO NEEDY BLIND. Assistance in this category amounted to $18,486 for the month. 444 recipients were aided at an average payment of $41.64 per recipient. These figures were fractionally higher than corresponding figures for the previous month.

GENERAL RELIEF. Payments by counties to recipients of General Relief amounted to $86,771.78 distributed as follows: subsistence -- $35,197.15; medical care -- $7,586.92; hospitalization -- $39,462.31; burials -- $4,525.40. The number of recipients of grants for subsistence decreased slightly from the previous month from 1,372 in May to 1,365 in June. Medical care was provided to 535 cases, hospitalization to 507 cases, and burial to 48 cases. The number of burials reported for June was double the number reported for May.
